ABOUT SCCE'S BASIC COMPLIANCE & ETHICS ACADEMY

WHY YOU SHOULD ATTEND

More than 3,600 compliance & ethics professionals have turned to SCCE Basic Compliance & Ethics Academies to learn best and leading practices in compliance and ethics management.

SCCE Academies are not conferences. Instead, they provide in-depth, classroom-style training in the essential elements of an effective compliance and ethics programme. Class size is limited to facilitate interaction both with the faculty and the other participants.

Topics addressed include:

- Standards, Policies, and Procedures
- Compliance and Ethics Programme Administration
- Communications, Education, and Training
- Monitoring, Auditing, and Internal Reporting Systems
- Response and Investigation, Discipline and Incentives
- Anti-Corruption and Bribery
- Risk Assessment
- Compliance across borders

The Academies are also excellent preparation for the Certified Compliance and Ethics Professional-International (CCEP-I)® examination.

Course materials are provided and include SCCE's The Complete Compliance and Ethics Manual (normally $419) and International Compliance 101 (normally $60).

An integral feature of the SCCE Academy is the ability to meet industry peers. Because class size is limited you will have the opportunity to get to know the other Academy attendees well. In addition, during the course of the Academy, SCCE provides a networking event that gives participants the opportunity to meet with each other in an informal environment.

BECOMING CERTIFIED

Currently over 9,800 Compliance Professionals around the world have earned a Compliance Certification Board designation. These individuals have all demonstrated sufficient knowledge of government regulations and compliance processes to understand and address legal obligations and promote organizational integrity through the operation of effective compliance and ethics programmes.

By taking and passing the Certified Compliance and Ethics Professional-International (CCEP-I)® certification exam, you will both join this distinguished group and help further the development of the compliance and ethics profession.

Earning the CCEP-I requires passing the CCEP-I examination, which, is offered after the conclusion of the Academy. Eligibility to sit for the examination requires the completion of 20 hours of continuing education in compliance within the 12 months prior to your exam date. There are a number of ways to obtain those credits, but the Basic Compliance & Ethics Academy can provide all the continuing education credits you need and also provides excellent preparation for the certification exam. Additional eligibility requirements and more detailed information about the exam can be found in the CCEP-I Candidate Handbook or at compliancecertification.org. The exam is optional and requires an additional applicant fee.

The goal for this session is to provide compliance professionals with a solid understanding of the role of auditing and monitoring in the compliance system. It begins with determining the role of auditing and monitoring in the organizational governance process – specifically what assurance the board and management need to meet their responsibilities. Next the session explores the relationship between monitoring activities and internal control. A practical process for developing effective monitoring plans and strategies is then presented along with attributes needed for these plans to provide assurance on the effectiveness of the compliance programme. Finally, the session ends with a discussion of internal reporting systems as a key part of an organization's monitoring activities.

What are the things that can be measured, what are the tools for doing this measurement, and what else do you need to know to avoid pitfalls and get valid results? We consider why it is not enough to simply do surveys, and how different tools work best for measuring effectiveness in addressing different compliance risks. We also consider who should do the evaluations and who should get the results.

THURSDAY
28 SEPTEMBER

8:00 – 8:30

Continental Breakfast
(provided)

8:30–9:30

Using Incentives in the Compliance Programme

Greg Triguba, JD, CCEP, CCEP-I, Senior Practice Leader, Ethics, Compliance and Risk, Affiliated Monitors, Inc.

The incentives session will explain why it is so important to include incentives in the scope of a compliance programme. The session reviews the different ways to do this, including personnel evaluations, rewards and awards, and giving compliance a role in promotion decisions. The coverage also includes the importance of company incentive programmes in general and why the compliance officer needs a seat at the table when any corporate incentive system is being developed. We ask the difficult question whether those who report fellow employees should get rewards for doing so.

9:45–11:30

Conflicts of Interest

Sheryl Vacca, CCEP-F, CCEP-I, CHC-F, CHRC, CHPC, SVP/Chief Risk Officer, Providence St Joseph Health

Employees are expected to act in the best interests of their organizations and exercise sound judgment unclouded by personal interest or divided loyalties, but that does not always occur. This session is designed to assist compliance professionals in understanding ethical and organizational risks that result from conflicts of interest and how they occur; gifts, gratuities and kickbacks; policy development; disclosure programmes; detection and auditing for compliance; training; case studies and best practices.
